JOURNAL, AN UP-TO-DATE, MODERN NEWSPAPER.

PAGES 9 TO 16.

THE JOURNAL.

THE ONLY KEY

that opens the door leading to popularity is MERIT.

PAGES 9 TO 16.

the Journal is . . the . .

Other Paper. Most Popular Paper in Town.

MONDAY, MARCH 23, 1896.—SIXTEEN PAGES.

MAJOR WESTMAN.

COMMISSIONER OF JURORS PLIMLEY.

EX-SENATOR HENDRICKS.

DWIGHT LAWRENCE.

SOME OF THE UP-STATE RULERS OF NEW YORK, DOWN HERE TO SEE PLATT, SEEN ABOUT THE HOTELS YESTERDAY.

COUNTRY COUSINS INVADE NEW YORK.

Down Here to Attend Mr. T. C. Platt's Republican Convention To-morrow.

the Hotels and Shake Hands All Round.

TIOGA MAN FIXING THE PLATFORM.

It Will Be a Gold and Protection Affair. Parsons for Temporary Chairman, and Southwick for Permanent-Contesting Delegations from

This City.

yesterday with delegates from all parts

Albany; Robert G. Greacen, ex-Assembly-Albany; Robert G. Greacen, ex-Assembly man Seth Wilkes, Fred S. Gibbs, Francis
S. Hendricks, of Syracuse; Louis F. Payn, far there have been no changes in the William Barnes, of Albany; Congressman will be the same

To-day will witness the Arryan of an angular of the delegates to the State convention. So far there have been no changes in the silonately, "and she shall be free, or the Cuban people will become extinct! That Cornelius Parsons, of Rochester; Superintendent George W. Aldridge, Senator

State Committee, was not in evidence during the day. He has been confined to his room with a severe cold, but expects to be on hand to-day and take charge of the arrangements for the convention. All the the Buffalo Express; Colonel Thomas C.

Reminiscences of Meyerbeer was then given by Professor Kirchuer's band. A trombone solo was rendered by Mons. A. Floryn, and a soprano solo by Mme. Marie Stori was heard. rest of the leaders of the State machine campbell, Senator John M. Thurston, of were present, however, and received the Nebraska, and George W. McCadden, presiband, Representative Sulzer made an advisiting delegates as they arrived. PLATT'S PLATFORM.

portant feature of the convention and will ing of the State Committee. declare for "gold" as emphatically as The convention will be a perfunctory words can express it. The leaders in this affair. Mr. Platt has the organization solid. State expect that this will in a great degree injure the McKinley boom, as the Rochester, for temporary chairman, and liberty have endeared it and its manage-Ohio platform is not very clear upon the Representative Southwick, of Albany, for ment to every lover of Cuba. It has also

The platform will also contain a protection plank, but it will not declare for the high protective tariff that is advocated by Italian Statesmen Meet on the Field of States," he continued, "I should not only ley. Platt and his advisers fear that the advocacy of too high a tariff schedule will insure the enmity of many business men and they do not care to risk another campaign upon the same lines as those of State Convention was held yesterday afternoon at Terrace Garden. Edward Lauterbach, chairman of the Republican State Committee, presided. The conference was

The weapons used were sabres. General
Mocenni proved himself the better swordsman and wounded his opponent in the face.
Honor being thus satisfied the duellists became reconciled. held to settle the contests that will be preheld to settle the contests that will be presented to the convention. It was said last night that the contesting delegates from the First, Thirteenth Eighteenth, Twenty-seventh and Twenty-third Assembly districts would be admitted. The delegation in the Thirty-first District is divided and will be admitted. Thomas F. Eagan, the Brookfield in the Thomas F. Eagan, the Brookfield pader in the Twenty-second District, will be not be reached, the engineers and the Monasha dam by April 15. It is now fourteen inches below that level will not be reached, the engineers and the Minister of Marka strength of Senor Castelar and the Minister of Marka strength of the Spanish Government that the Rothschilds desire to subscribe for a large amount of the new Cuban bonds.

Senor Basagolti, vice-president and delegate of the Spanish Patriotic Junta of Mexico, gave a banquet yesterday in honor of Senor Castelar and the Minister of Marka siven a seat, A committee was applied to the contesting delegates from the Civic Valley will be shut down with in a few days. The Government engineers have ordered that the water be at the crest of the Monasha dam by April 15. It is now fourteen inches below that level will not be reached, the engineers say. In the event of a shut-down of Senor Castelar and the Minister of Marka siven as a seat, A committee was applied to the contesting of the Rothschilds desire to subscribe for a large amount of the new Cuban bonds.

Senor Basagolti, vice-president and delegate of the Spanish Patriotic Junta of Mexico, gave a banquet yesterday in honor of Senor Castelar and the Minister of Marka siven as a seat, A committee was applied to the contesting that the Rothschilds desire to subscribe for a large amount of the new Cuban bonds.

Senor Basagolti, vice-president and delegate of the Spanish Patriotic Junta of Mexico, gave a banquet yesterday in honor of Senor Castelar and the Minister of Marka siven as a seat, A committee was applied to the contest of the Spanish Castelar and the Spanish Castelar and the Minis pointed to procure tickets for the convention. There has been a large demand for these tickets and some of the applicants are bound to be disappointed.

WOULD-BE GOVERNORS. There was a report around the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night that H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, had written a letter Entertainment in Grand in which he declared for McKinley. Mr. Evans has been considered a "machine" follower and his defection at this time troubles the "combine" leaders.

Many of the candidates for the Gubernatorial nomination were also in evidence Would-Be Governors Gather About troller James A. Roberts, Congressman Benjamin O'Dell, Jr., Senator Clarence Lexow and other aspirants were on hand. Fish was the most conspicuous and spens several hours in the Fifth Avenue Hotel lobby shaking hands with the visitors. There was a strong drift, however, in favor of O'Dell, and it was freely predicted last night that he would be the nominee of the party. Assemblyman James M. O'Grady, the majority lender in the Assembly, was also in evidence. Rumor had declared him to be a candidate for second place upon the State toket. When questioned about this vester. Thomas C. Platt, who looks after the interests of the Republican party in this State, spent a very busy Sunday. Or diparity Mr. Platt sees his lieutemants.

Calculate for second place agon the state that Platt sees his lieutemants.

The questioned about this yester day he asserted that he had no thought of the evening opened with the overture from "William Tell" by the Thirteenth Regiment Band, under the leadership of yesterday with delegates from all parts of the State, who were here to attend the claim made by the friends of McKin-Mrs. Flora M. Stewart and Professor the convention to-morrow. The majority of them called upon Mr. Platt and later gathered in squads to discuss the situation.

Among those who met in the corridors of Alabama. They claim that Morton will have both of these delegates. This state-Chairman Charles W. Hackett, of the the meeting to order, and will nominate dent of the Franklin Association of Press-dress.

Mr. Platt was busily engaged during the day upon the platform which will be adopt-days, but was greatly improved last night, ed to-morrow. This will be the most im- and will be present to-night at the meet- and accurate accounts of the war there than permanent chairman.

Honor, and After One Is Slightly Wounded Both Are Reconciled.

Rome, March 22.—The duel between Gen. After more music and a stereopticon discampaign upon the same lines as those of 1852. Further than this the platform will declare for a vigorous foreign policy. The work of preparing the platform has not been completed and it will not be before to-night.

Rome, March 22.—The duel between Genderal Mocenni, ex-Minister of War, and Signor Barzifials, a Radical member of the Chamber of Deputies, growing out of a wrangle in the Chamber yesterday, during the discussion of the credits asked for by the Government took place this possible. A caucus of the machine delegates to the the Government, took place this morning. The weapons used were sabres. General

Central Palace.

Representative Sulzer's Speech in Favor of Recognizing the Patriots' Independence.

SPEAKS OF THE JOURNAL'S NEWS.

Mr. Navarro Says That Cubans Will Either Be Free or That the Race Will Become Extinct-Musical Features of the Festival.

The hotels which are patronized by the visiting Republicans, the Fifth Avenue, the Metropole and the Imperial, were crowded yesterslay with delegators from the Assembly in 1897.

Inst night that O'Grady would be a candidate for re-election to the Assembly and would try to succeed Fish as the Speaker of the Cuban sympathizers, took the slatter of the Cuban sympathizers. the Fifth Avenue Hotel were Philip Heck.

The Fifth Avenue Hotel were Ph McKinley last night.

To-day will witness the arrival of all England.

George N. Southwick, of Albany; Senator the men from this State will be the same island is their home. A tyrant robs them Cornelius Parsons, of Rochester; Superior as already stated in the Journal.

The mass-meeting in favor of William manner, and the natives are determined to ther of Mr. Platt's trusted leaders.

Oooper Union. Lovell H. Jerome will call turn it into ashes."

"The Journal," said he, "has done more all of the American papers and legislators gained many sympathizers in this country for the brave men who are fighting for that ilberty which is dearer than life itself.
"If I were President of the United recommend the recognition of Cuba's belligerency, but its absolute independence."

Immense applause followed the speech.

Offered to Subscribe Largely to schild firm, has informed the Spanish Gov-sent to Mexico declaring that "both Mexico for wide distribution in America a careful- MACEO FIGHTS SPANIARDS. domination in Cuba as a defence against of the political and administrative liberties foreign ambitions."

000 for buying a new cruiser for Spain. day, but owing to the turn in the debate in Probably the cruiser will be built at Cadiz. The Government has resolved to publish becoming more and more tranquil.

Villa has had another severe fight with Macco's force in the vicinity of Bahia Honda, to the westward of Havana. No details of the battle are given. The Government has resolved to publish becoming more and more tranquil.

which have been granted to Cuba.

sent to Mexico declaring that "both Mexico for wide distribution in America a carefuland Spain need a continuation of Spanish by prepared memoir containing full details But No Details Given of What May Be an WOWAN CAPTURES Important Battle.

Madrid, March 22 .- A dispatch to the Im-The Hispano-Mexican Junta offers $300,- Several patriotic meetings took place to- parelal from Havana says that General

A DESPERATE THIEF,

Mrs. Calligan Surprises a Marauder and Holds Him in Spite of Blows.

She Had Been Cashing Checks for Customers and Left the Money in Her Bedroom.

BARRETT THREW HER DOWN STAIRS.

The Saloon Below Was Crowded with Men. Who Did Not Hear Her Cries Till the Scuffle Raged Outside the Door.

Mrs. Ann Calligan, of No. 74 First street, Jersey City, is a medium-sized woman, but she was more than a match for James Barrett, allas John Moore, of No. 330 East Twenty-eighth street, this city, early yesterday morning, when she discovered him in her bedroom rifling a satchel filled with

Mrs. Calligan's husband is a cripple, and she runs the saloon on the ground floor of their residence. The place is much frequented by rallroad men, as Mrs. Calligan cashes their checks on pay day. Saturday night the place was crowded, and Mrs. Calligan cashed a great many, In doing so she exhibited a satchel stuffed with bills. Among the men in the saloon was Barrett. About midnight Mrs. Calligan carried the satchel, filled with checks and money, upstairs to her bedroom. She placed it in a bureau drawer and returned to the saloon. Shortly afterward Barrett left the place. About half-past 1 o'clock Mrs. Calligan, having occasion to cash another check, ran upstairs for the money As she entered the bedroom she noticed a man bending over the bureau. "What are you doing here?" demanded

NO ASSISTANCE ARRIVED. Then, as the man started for the door, she sprang upon him. She was struck twice in the face before she succeeded in grasping him by the coat, and she held on amid a shower of blows. Around the room struggled the pair, Mrs. Calligna trying to reach the hall and shout for help. Barrett fighting to escape. At last they reached the landing at the top of the

Leave me go, you!" shouted Barrett; "or I'll do you, spre."

"Help!" screamed Mrs. Calligan, but the noise of the struggle was not heard in the saloon, as the doors lending to it were closed. Barrett at last managed to clutch Mrs. Calligan, and, choking her until her utterance had ceased, pitched her head-long downstairs. As she fell, however, she pulled Barrett with her, and both landed in a heap at the bottom Barrett managed to gain his feet first and kicked Mrs. Calligan victousir. The noise of the struggle had meanwhile been heard and several men ran from the saloon into the hall. Barrett was select just as he was about to again kick Mrs. Calligan, and held until the arrival of the

When searched $354,821, besides several checks taken from the satchel, were found upon him. He admitted that he had frequented the saloon in the hope of finding an opportunity to rob the proprietres His picture is No. 818 in Chief Murphy's Rogues' Gallery.

Baby Left on a Doorstep. Paterson, N. J., March 22.—Some one ate last night abandoned a three-monthoid baby boy in the vestibule of Mrs. G. W. Pullis's home, at No. 358 Van Houten street. The child was well dressed. The baby was sent to the City Almshouse.

without a single fight, and—so at least the members brag-nary a lady had a jag. It was a masquerade affair, but one young girl with golden hair-the men all said she was a peach, but women frowned and muttered "Bleach!"—looked round the hall in great disdain, and said, "De ball gives me a pain. If I'd a-known, I wouldn't come. De maskerade is on d' bum." The ball began at midnight's stroke, and not until the crowd was broke-

'twas long, long after break of day-did any think of going away. The story of this wondrous thing 'twould take a hundred years to sing, and if we told of all the toots there'd be a thousand libel suits. So, with discretion, we will tell you some things that there befell. A youthful lass, clad all in red, who really should have been been in bed, sat in a box with a red-faced male, both of them drinking-ginger ale. But when the band began to play the little girl got very gay, and with a shout of joy she rose and deftly exercised her toes. Faster and faster played the band, but ere you could have raised your hand the girl in red, with twinkling eyes, treated the crowd to a surprise. The hall resounded with a shout, and soon a crowd had gathered about, applauding her efforts without stint. The rest cannot be teld in print. One young man with a girl in pink, who could not get the walter said; "Til fill yer carcassfull o' lead." But ere they could prepare for strife they heard a voice, "Not enough to drink, grabbed a waiter and roared, "See here, 'r' ye puttin' water in d' beer?"

on your life;" and biff; the manager of the floor was dragging the young man to the door-